

CONFERENCE SPEAKER:

Jeff
ANDERSON

As the Pastor of Grace Bible Church, Jeff began conducting International Bible conferences in 2004, to expose indigenous pastors to expository preaching and sound doctrine. IBC has ministered to tens of thousands of pastors in India, Nepal, Philippines, Laos, Thailand, Albania, Russia, the Caribbean, Brazil, Uganda, Liberia, and Kenya. Jeff currently works as a Senior Advisor to Congressman Doug Lamborn for Faith-Based Outreach. Congressman Lamborn represents U.S. House District 5 in Colorado, including Colorado Springs. The purpose of this role is to convene local non-profits to collaborate with government in addressing needs of the community.

SEMINAR SPEAKERS

Nancy Anderson

As a pastor's wife, Nancy was heavily involved in music, children's and Bible Study ministries. With her husband's current ministry role with International Bible Conference, she continues to be involved in music ministry at their home church.

Nathan Nymeyer

Director of Programming
European Leadership Forum

Allen Hutchinson

Speaker Coordinator
European Leadership Forum

Both men have served in various roles, including pastoral and local church ministry. Nathan also currently serves as an adjunct professor for online Bible and theology courses at Western Seminary in Portland, Oregon. They will be addressing the topic "Why Europe is Important in the Spread of the Gospel."

Tyler Pease

NW Regional Director
Perspectives USA

Tyler has served on the pastoral staff of Sunset Bible Church since 2008 and is the incoming NW Regional Director for Perspectives USA. Seeing churches mobilized to God's global purposes is his passion. Perspectives has equipped Tyler and his wife, Karen, to engage with the international community in Tacoma, WA through a multi-church effort. Their ministry has engaged students from more than 25 countries, including 7 of the world's 30 largest unreached people groups. His seminar topic will be "Can a Biblical Church Ignore Unreached & Frontier Peoples?"
